

Welcome! Welcome! Welcome to our family!

My name is Terry McPeak. I am thrilled to be a part of the TLC team and am excited to start our journey of enlightenment together. Working with Dr Dean, Dr. Jen and the TLC team is a pleasure each and every day. Everyone here at TLC is friendly, helpful and the energy just flows.

My position on the team allows me to help grow and bring new life to our family. My primary objective is to serve our members through the planning of all our events, Seminars, Leadership Camps and Intensives. Bringing the TLC family together to build each other in a fun party environment is what I do best.

Our Team is dedicated to cross training so whatever your question is I will do all in my power to get you the answer. If you need anything or I can serve you in any way please e-mail me at teresa@tlc4superteams.com.

My hope for you and your team is that TLC is a place you can call home.
